

Linking to Documents or Web Sites in 2003

	Open your PowerPoint slideshow.
	On a slide, draw a shape: Insert Picture Autoshapes Choose a shape, then click & drag to draw on the slide. You could also Insert a Clipart to use. You could also select some text to use.
	Click once on the shape to select it. Click on Insert Click on Hyperlink
Link to a file	To link to a file, choose the Existing File or Web Page button. Navigate to the file and click once on it. Click OK. Note: the file should be in the same folder as your slide show
Link to web site	To link to a web page, choose the Existing File or Web Page button. Copy and paste a web address in the Address bar. Click OK.

Link to another slide	To link to another slide in this slide show, choose the Place in This Document button. Choose the slide – a preview will appear. Click OK.
	Hyperlinks only work in Slide Show view. Click on Slide Show Click on View Show Test your link by clicking on the shape. SAVE!	